The complainants were at their residence on January 16, 2010 at approximately 1820 hours. The mother was in the kitchen area when she saw a shadow at the back door and screamed. The father came to the kitchen as two suspects armed with handguns kicked open the back door and entered the residence. The father placed himself between the suspects and his family. The first suspect hit the father across the face with a handgun knocking him to the ground. The second suspect used duct tape to bind the mother's and father's hands and feet. The second suspect then placed duct tape across their mouth and eyes. The daughter was in the adjoining living room holding her infant son when the robbery began.
